

Crisis Management & Emergency Response

Natural Disasters & Manmade Events

If a major event hits anywhere in the world, Pinkerton quickly gets “boots on the ground” to help protect your assets and people.

Make one call to your local Pinkerton office and we'll immediately activate our global network of resources to deploy our Rapid Response Teams. We provide a full range of disaster recovery and event management services anywhere in the world at a moment's notice.

Natural disaster preparation and response

Pinkerton is highly experienced at preparing Crisis Management Plans to keep companies fully prepared for the occurrence of a natural disaster. We are also well practiced at executing effective disaster recovery solutions after an event; we've secured the safety of hundreds of employees for client companies throughout the world. Global corporations have relied on Pinkerton for assistance due to:

- massive infrastructure failures following Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, Wilma and Sandy
- destabilization caused by forest fires which engulfed thousands of acres in the western U.S. threatening both property and life and safety of residents and rescue workers
- damages resulting from a Taiwanese earthquake

Event management expertise protects assets

Corporations around the world increasingly rely on Pinkerton's expertise in managing the myriad of both security and non-security events that impact operations and threaten interruption of their businesses, such as:

- Widespread power outages
- Civil and political unrest
- Mass evacuation
- Deliberate acts of terror or criminal conduct

During these crisis situations, Pinkerton implements and executes disaster recovery solutions that may involve hundreds of employees and the protection of millions of dollars' worth of assets. Pinkerton also helps you develop and facilitate the implementation of appropriate Crisis and Emergency Response plans and conducts Table Top Exercises to test their effectiveness and identify gaps prior to any event so you're not caught off guard.

Case Study | Natural Disasters & Manmade Events: Tornado in Moore, Oklahoma

Challenge: Pinkerton's Global Response Services Team was deployed to Moore, Oklahoma to assist a client's Disaster Response Team after a devastating F5 tornado tore through the town. While on the ground, the team found themselves in harm's way as a second F5 tornado was bearing down on their location.

Pinkerton's Solution: Pinkerton leveraged its Global Intelligence Network for instant updates on the path of the tornado which were critical in helping the team in the evacuation plan.

Results: Pinkerton was able to evacuate the client's team to a safe location until the threat was over with no reported injuries during the incident.

Pinkerton's holistic approach to Risk Management

Pinkerton has identified four main categories of risk factors that impact a business and its operation, both inside and outside of the company. We offer innovative services and reliable solutions specifically designed for each risk area.
